> BROADWAY THEATER. Endorsed by Governors.

Remarkable among the many sensatour last season was its endorsement and patronage by the governors of half a dozen states. At least two of these chief executives came out in public statements warmly commending the play for its historical accuracy and its power for "ood. When conservative thinking men like Swanson of Virginia, Glenn of North Carolina and Lanham of Texas take pleasure in witnessing this epic of reconstruction days its appeal to the masses of the people may be easily understood. "The fierce, fascinating 'Clansman,' as a newspaper man called it, will come to the Broadway theater this evening.

"The Little Terror."

In "The Little Terror," Amelia Weed Hoibrook has provided Miss Cecil Spooner with the best starring vehicle that that clever actress has had in many seasons. The scenes of "The Little Terror" are laid in New Mexico. This proves a new locale for a dramatic offering, and special attenton has been given to a truthful delineation of life as it is in this new country. The characters of the new play have been drawn by a mastermind; the plot has been conceived by a writer that is thoroughly conversant with the subject in hand. The company engaged by Charles E. Blaney for Miss Spooner's support is an excellent one, headed by Harry Dunkinson.

Special attention has been given to the staging of the play; it has been entirely under the personal supervis-ien of Mr. Blaney. This fact assures the public a most complete perform-ance. "The Little Terror," with Miss Spooner will be the attraction at the Broadway theater Wednesday, Sep-

The Breed theater will show this week one of the longest bills of the season, there being two pictures 1,000 feet iong; and one that is considerable over 1,000 feet in length, besides the regular amount of comedy and dramatic subjects.

This week will inaugurate a pleasing addition to the regular attractions, by the valuable services of Fred N. Clark, the popular and capable trapdrammer of this city. Mr. Clark will produce the effects to supplement the action in the pictures, his unlimited supply of traps enabling him to meet the demands of any picture.

The great feature of the week will be the brilliant dramatic picture, entitled The Yellow Jacket Mine. This is another off those western pictures that have made the Breed so popular, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and the love of a young miner (who holds an interest in the Yellow Jacket Mine, for his partner's daughter, and th

As a concert number this week Miss Alwin will sing Verdi's "Ah. I have sighed to reat me" her full, well-rounded voice showing to excellent advantage in the great climax, also in the creacendo passages, which fills the theater abundantly. This is a most popular number with the public, and whenever she sings it, she is greeted with flattering criticisms by the press. She will also sing one of the jatest illustrated songs, to meet the demand for this class of song.

NEW OLYMPIC THEATER

Opens This Evening.

The new Olmypic theater, one of the hansomest theaters in the state, opens its door at 7.30 this evening with Fred Heid's motion pictures. Mr. Held has had 15 years' experience in the operation of motion pictures; for over ten years he has been associated with the American Vitagraph company of New York in the capacity of operator and camera man; in all these years he has formed the acquaintance of most all the film manufacturers and film dealers in the country, placing him in a position to obtain the very best films. No picture will be presented which by scene or action will offend the most fastidious audience.

William T. Delaney has been engaged to sing illustrated songs. He is a native of Norwich and his many friends will be on hand to give him a rousing welcome. Miss Hamann, the pianist, is also a Norwich lady, and is well known as an expert on the piano.
